

National Mentor Programme 2022

A chance for the committed student to be mentored by the Royal New Zealand Ballet dancers and Artistic Team. Spend time with them during each season and get an inside experience of life as a professional dancer. This one-year programme is offered to students studying at Intermediate and above levels of classical ballet who are aged 13 years and older as at 1 January 2022.

Entry into the programme is by application only. An application fee of $12 is required. Successful applicants will be notified by email and will pay a one-off fee of $100 for the year.

The application has two parts:

- The written application (see below)
- Video footage of the applicant dancing.
The video should be a maximum of 4-5 minutes long and show only the following:

Barre: Plies, Tendus and Adagio

Centre: Pirouettes and Petite and Grand Allegro in the centre

One classical variation en pointe. (stage or studio)

Applications open on Friday 1 October 2021
